Crucial Hi District Bond Ballot May 17

Voters in the Jefferson Union High School district on May 17 will be asked to approve an estimated $2,750,000 bond issue and $3,000,000 state loan, necessary to cover the district's needs the next four years.

Trustees designated the crucial date Monday night after Superintendent Edward D. Morgan approximated the sizes of both key issues. The balloting will fall on the same date as the county-wide trustee election.

State Aid Vital

The bond issue, bonding the district to capacity through June 30, 1961, must be supplemented by the state loan if the district is to speed the third high school in Sharp Park, complete Westmoor, and meet heavy current obligations.

Morgan met with Elwood Lehman, state division of schoolhouse planning, Friday to re-project enrollments to determine when the district would be eligible for state funds. By abandoning certain parts of the antiquated Jeff plant or by getting a state waiver on square footage per student, the district will be entitled to state aid the coming school year.

These decisions will determine the exact size of the bond issue and state aid request. Morgan will confer again with state officials prior to presenting final recommendations for board approval at the February 25 meeting. Meanwhile, the board authorized formation of a Citizens' Bond Election Committee, to be appointed by trustees, for the purpose of presenting "pros and cons" of the issue.

DC 'Nest Egg' Only Mythical, Records Show

That reported $134,000 "undistributed reserve" that the city has recently declared available for a capital improvement fund is only a mythical "nest egg," THE RECORD learned today.

Actually, this amount and sometimes more has been carried over on the city books for years, in keeping with fiscal practice of most municipalities. The money is used to tide the city over during the "dry period" from July 1 to November 1 when no tax revenues are received by the city.

Should this money be placed in a capital improvement fund and spent, the city might theoretically be "broke" during the "dry period" and might have to borrow money on tax anticipation warrants—with accompanying high interest rates.

"Saved Money"

The present administration has asserted that it "saved" this whopping sum of $134,000. Actually there was more money in this carry-over fund in 1952 than there is today. In other words, the present administration has probably depleted the "surplus" rather than increased it.

The $134,000 now appears as a "surplus" because of a new method of accounting. The money has always been there but has not been reflected in the basic accounting.

For instance, at the end of the 1955 fiscal year there was some $150,000 in the unappropriated balance. This might have been termed a "surplus" but in the first three or four months of the fiscal year, which starts July 1, this fund was used to pay salaries and other encumbrances in the absence of tax revenues, which start coming in late fall. But, as the fiscal year came to a close the $150,000, or near that amount, became "surplus" again when revenues caught up and passed expenditures as property taxes and state subventions were forthcoming.

Fiscal Policy

Actually this practice is merely a fiscal policy. Theoretically the city comes out even at the end of the year but this "reserve" is maintained to avoid borrowing on tax anticipation warrants in the "dry period."

One fiscal expert indicated that if the surplus were "impaired" (by spending it for capital improvements), the city would be "placed in a poor cash position."

The city is currently considering placing the $134,000 in a capital improvement fund and earmarking it for specific projects. If the money is spent and in August, for instance, the city is (Continued on Page 2)

Fiction Revealing
Fiction can often be more revealing of different peoples and their ways of life than books based strictly on fact. Among the more recent novels concerned with social problems and different cultures are Richard Hagopian's WINE FOR THE LIVING, which concerns the Armenian settlement in Boston; Sikes Johnson's THE HOPE OF REFUGE, about intolerance in the South; ALL MANNER OF MEN, a collection of short stories from Catholic periodicals, edited by Riley Hughes; HILL OF THE ROOSTER, by Curry Holden, concerning the Indians of Mexico; John Hersey's A SINGLE PEBBLE, set in China; and Vilhelm Moberg's WHEN I WAS A CHILD, an autobiographical novel of the author's own early life in Sweden. Africa, so much in the news, is represented by several outstanding new works of fiction: A DANCE IN THE SUN, by Dan Jacobson; A WREATH FOR UDOMO, by Peter Abrahams; MAMBA, by Stuart Cloete; and BLACK RHAPSODY, by Gunar Helander.

Council In Turnabout On Opposing Jitneys

reconsider their opposition to the route. Change of sentiment now indicates that the council may actually back the route, one of two being proposed by the jitneys. The second route, to the Olympic and Palisades sections in Westlake, has already met with council approval.

The council will not hold another official meeting until February 25, which means they cannot formally reverse their stand until that time. City Attorney Frank Blum had been preparing arguments against the route to be presented at the February 28 hearing. It is expected, therefore, that the council will make an unofficial commitment next Wednesday at their study session so that the attorney will have ample time to build a case, instead of against, the jitneys proposed route.

Taxi Permits

In another transportation matter Monday, the council stood firm in its contention that Hilltop Cab Co. is entitled to only five taxi permits, despite persistent pleas of co-owner George Kirchhubel that his company has always had seven permits. Kirchhubel was told that he could make formal application for the two extra permits if he thought his firm's business warranted them.

The two-hour parking limit approved earlier for School street was eliminated pending further police studies.

As a trial measure, councilmen agreed to have all parking meters removed on Mission street between Theta and Eastlake avenues.

Request from City Treasurer Paul Selmi for a month's time off to accompany his son to Minnesota for a surgical operation was approved. The first two weeks absence will be considered as his regular paid vacation, while he will not be compensated for his second two weeks. This portion of the salary will go to defray Steve Mezzera's 30's fee of hiring an account clerk.

Daltons Of B'moor Smile At Hardships

two years, the Daltons, needless to say, have more than physical problems. Finance is another thing. During his long hospitalization, (six years in all) Dan managed to save enough for a down payment on their modest home. But meeting expenses is a constant problem.

Betty receives a small monthly outlay from the county in blind compensation. Dan gets state disability. Most of these funds go for essentials. What's left is for medical attention.

Nurse Essential
Dan currently employs a nurse to tend him and Betty. Someone is needed round the clock, so help are the Daltons.

Most Broadmoor neighbors are aware of their plight. Many have been helpful. Others can be.

Standbys thus far have been Police Chief Ray Savage, his men, Times columnist Gwin Mitchell, and several residents on Gilman. These folks always are ready to do them a favor.

Right now, the Daltons have one outstanding problem — among many. They need a door and ramp extension from their bedroom to the back yard. In case of fire, the helpless couple could be trapped since their only exit is in another bedroom. Not too long ago, they escaped serious injury when their TV set, rigged above the bed, caught fire.

Dan figures the door and ramp work will cost about $700. As for funds, the Daltons just can't afford the job.

You Can Help
Dan, Savage and company, and Mrs. Mitchell have other ideas. They're launching a community-wide drive to get the job done. The police will do the work if the materials are supplied.

If you'd care to join the Aid The Daltons' drive, pick up the phone and call either Ray Savage, PL 5-3838, or columnist Mitchell, PL 5-0679. They'll see that all funds and materials donated will be put to good use. And the Daltons... well, you couldn't ask for a better cause!

Set Funeral For Boy, 14, Shot By Pal

Funeral services will be held this Friday morning for Jerry Lee Featherstone, 14-year-old Daly City youth, who died Saturday afternoon when he was accidentally shot during a target shooting trip on San Bruno mountain.

The victim, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Featherstone, 24 East Moltke street, was pronounced dead on arrival at Junipero Serra hospital, a few minutes after the mishap.

Two companions, Dave Mitchell, 14, and Larry Whitman, 13, told police that Jerry raised up from a ditch in front of Mitchell's gun as the latter fired at a tin can. The bullet struck him in the middle of the forehead.

Sheriff's deputies Tuesday decided against a manslaughter charge in the case, but are still investigating to determine if the boys were guilty of violating a county gun ordinance.

Services for Featherstone will start at 10:45 o'clock at W. C. Lasswell's. Interment will be in Golden Gate National cemetery.

He is survived by three sisters and two brothers.

GROUP AIRS LOCAL SOCIAL, WELFARE NEEDS AT MEETING

Social and welfare needs of the community was the topic of discussion at a special public meeting Tuesday night in Colma Community Center.

Heading the spirited two-hour talks were Thomas L. Bocci Jr., municipal judge; John Ivan, Jefferson High dean of boys, and Frederick Schweickhardt, Colma K-6 principal.

The meeting was organized by Mrs. M. Pauline Brown, president of Colma Community Center. Also participating were the CCC board of directors, Allan Mori, Major Calvin Hall, and Mrs. Ruth Fisher.

The group decided to send out letters of inquiry to local residents to determine teenage needs and other problems.

Three Jeff Teachers Get Tenure Contracts

Three Jefferson High teachers this week were granted tenure contracts for the 1957-58 school year.

They are Mrs. Nancy Brown, physical education; Eugene Lipson, English department; and Herbert Winn, science instructor.

Jefferson faculty members awarded three-year contracts were: Kenneth H. Brown, Annette H. Insel, Julianne Jansen, Frank Pustay, Chrysanthe Lekas, Mrs. Gladys Rodgers, Emmett B. Tierney and Robert S. Watt.

Westmoor teachers approved for third-year contracts were: Robert Blanche, Robert Delzell, Robert Hyde, Carlos Kaufeldt, Rodney Losberger, Evelyn Slater, Benjamin Snyder and Allen Whitsett.

Twenty-five new teachers will be added to the district by next September. Superintendent Edward D. Morgan and principals John Mongan and Glenn South currently are interviewing candidates for the posts.

Probe Death Of Man, 67, In Trailer Here

The coroner's office is investigating the death of a 67-year-old man who was found Wednesday morning in his trailer at the New S. F. Motel, 6925 Mission street.

H. Lorenz, motel owner, discovered the nude body of John Morley, occupation unknown, on the floor next to his bed. Death apparently came from natural causes, police said.

Lorenz said he entered the trailer after neighbors reported they hadn't seen Morley in two weeks. The victim had no known relatives in this area.

W. C. Lasswell is handling funeral arrangements.

A new world record for small-mouth black bass was set July 9, 1955 by David L. Hayes at Dale Hollow Lake, Kentucky; it weighed 12 pounds, five ounces.

Oakland Brothers Held As Suspects In DC Bar Holdup

Bartender Edward Perrins identified two Oakland youths Monday as the pair who allegedly staged a $250 stickup two weeks ago at Gino's Tavern on Mission street.

Held by Oakland police on several armed robbery counts are Paul D. Wiggins, 22, and his brother Max, 17. The pair were nabbed Sunday when they tried to flee the scene of another stickup.

Officers said the brothers are charged with a series of recent robberies throughout the Bay Area.

The bandits, using "penciled on" mustaches and powdered hair as a disguise, allegedly entered Gino's place shortly past midnight on January 31 and held Perrins and a customer at gunpoint to make their haul. Descriptions by other victims matched those given by Perrins.

Charge Brick Layer With Drunk Driving After Police Chase

A 33-year-old brick layer was charged with drunk driving here early Friday morning after he drove his car onto a sidewalk to climax a brief chase on Wellington avenue by officers in a patrol car.

Released on $500 bail to appear in court next week was Aaron J. Dykman, who listed his address as 196 Wellington.

Officers Richard Sims and George Brooks took off after Dykman when they noticed two other motorists chasing his vehicle up Wellington. Failing to negotiate a left turn, Dykman's car landed on a sidewalk. Investigation revealed that the brick layer had just been involved in collision on San Jose avenue, causing extensive damage to his car.

Belligerent on arrest, Dykman was handcuffed before being taken to the station. He failed to pass a sobriety test there, officers said.

Six Local Delegates Attend Atlantic City School Conventions

Six local school officials are in Atlantic City this week for the annual National School Boards Association and American Association of School Administrators conventions.

Representing the Jefferson Elementary School district are Superintendent H. Z. Weibel and trustees Hartley Appleton and Joseph Lewkowitz.

Lyal Ingersoll, board chairman, and trustee Elio Fontana are attending for the Jefferson Union High district. Ingersoll was named in place of Superintendent Edward D. Morgan, who turned down the trip because of pressing district business.

Frederick Lucas, Laguna Salada superintendent, is representing the North Coast side.

The trustees' convention opens today and runs through Sunday, followed by the administrators' session, ending next Wednesday.

Shorter Hours For Firemen Start Monday

Daly City's paid firemen will start a shorter work week Monday.

Shifts will be out from 72 to 65 hours. In addition, a system has been established that will provide for a captain being on duty 24 hours a day.

Shortening of the firemen's work week was scheduled to take effect last spring but was delayed pending hiring of additional firemen. Four more firemen are scheduled to report for work next week, bringing to 23 the number of men in the paid department.

Police, Firemen Hold Second Meet; Set Bylaws

Daly City Police and Firemen's association met for the second time Tuesday and adopted bylaws for the organization, which now numbers 26 members.

The group, formed to "create better understanding among the two departments and with the city," will hold its next meeting in early March, according to president Frank Specht.

BROADMOOR'S big Scout Parade Sunday left nothing to be desired. Leading off the marching spectacle was the color guard composed of local youngsters, followed closely by members of Broadmoor's police department. Drawing a large share of the attention from sidewalkers were the several military units who helped make the event the biggest here yet.

Sign-ups Heavy On Tax Petition

Committee Opposed to Sales Tax reported this week that a petition which would request county-wide voter approval of the sales tax was receiving "almost 100 per cent" sign-up.

Thomas Noonan, local chairman, said full-scale circulation of the petitions which would place the controversial issue on the county ballot had not started yet in the Daly City-Colma areas. He said an intensive campaign would probably be launched here next week.

Predicting that the necessary 12,000 signatures would be obtained easily, Noonan said C.O.S.T.'s proposal would be presented to county supervisors at a special evening meeting March 20 which has been set aside for sales tax discussion. The meeting was postponed to that date, having been slated earlier for February 20.

On the county front, San Carlos Tuesday night became the third city to approve the sales tax in a 4-1 vote. Other cities officially behind the special levy are Menlo Park and Belmont.

C.O.S.T. will appear February 25 at Daly City's sales tax public hearing and before a South San Francisco citizens group February 27.

W'lake Women Voters Due At 'League Day' Fete In San Francisco

Westlake Division of the League of Women Voters will participate in "League Day" and a "Legislative Luncheon" on Wednesday, February 20, at the Women's Club in San Francisco.

State Senator Robert I. McCarthy and San Francisco assemblymen have been invited for interviews. They will speak and answer questions on legislation of particular interest to the League.

The morning session, starting at 10:30 o'clock, will offer members the opportunity to review those aspects of state government which the League has studied and on which they may take action.

Broadmoor's Scout March Big Success

A color guard of an Explorer Scout, a Scout, a Cub, a Brownie and a Mariner led off the parade, followed by the Broadmoor Police Department color guard and ambulance, Colma Fire Department trucks, and the Daly City Municipal Band.

A group of Indian Guides and Adventurers from the San Francisco YMCA, some in colorful costumes, were next, and a large contingent of Brownies led the way for the 6th Army band and the Presidio drill team.

The NIKE float, manned by members of the 74th AAA Battalion, was the object of awe and fascination on the part of boys of all sizes, including the new Cub Packs following it in the line of march.

An open car carrying Karuk Chief Eaglewing, his son Red Turtle, and Girl Scout leaders preceded a bright red sedan filled with various youth group sponsors, and both cars made way for the Pacific Reserve Fleet color guard and drill team, which demonstrated sharp precision maneuvers as they marched.

Groups of Girl Scouts and their leaders marched to the music of the 12th Naval District Band, followed by floats of the aircraft carrier "Albatross" and the submarine "Nautilus."

Happy children completely filled the tooting railroad engine driven by the San Mateo County Forty-and-Eight American Legion Post, and San Bruno's blue-and-white clad Royalettes marched and drilled smartly behind the three twirling batons of their majorette, Scottish style skirts and cape distinguished the Job's Daughters, Bethel 198, next in line.

Boy Scouts and Explorers took over the scene next, with Troop 129 counting cadence as they marched. Then came the Marine Reserve color guard, and the Coast Guard drum and bugle corps. Daly City's own Co. L, 159th Infantry, National Guard, made a bright showing in their polished helmets, and were followed by mounted groups.

Confine Clo Ann To Convent After Juvenile Hearing

"Abducted" bride Clo Ann Wiegner last week was ordered committed to the Convent of the Good Shepherd in San Francisco as an incorrigible runaway.

The ruling was made by Superior Court Judge Murray Draper during a juvenile court hearing at Hillcrest.

Earlier the same day, Draper ruled Clo Ann's husband, Mike, 17, legally insane, and sent him to Atascadero State hospital for mental treatment. Clo Ann and Mike had a brief reunion before he departed.

Draper indicated that because of Wiegner's "unbalanced" condition, the youth may not be tried for the "kidnap" incident charges.

Wiegner's companion in the escapade, Jesse Eastman, 35, pleaded not guilty by reason of insanity last Thursday in municipal court. He is charged by Daly City police with assault, robbery, car theft, grand theft and burglary.

Judge Thomas L. Bocci certified Eastman to superior court for trial.

white cowboy hats, and members of the El Camino Riding Club and the San Francisco Horsemen's Association climaxed the lengthy procession, which met itself coming and going when circling the Mad-dux-Stewart and the Washington areas.

Warren Vocke, general chairman, spoke highly of the cooperation of all the many parade participants, and lauded police for their hard work in clearing streets and directing an unusually large amount of traffic.

Among those in the parade groups was Cub Pack 261, sponsored by Holy Angels Church. The 6th Army Pipe Band, originally included in parade plans, had a last-minute priority call to Arizona, and could not be here.

The world's record black bass was taken in Montgomery Lake, Georgia, June 2, 1932; it weighed 22.4 pounds.

Something For Everyone

In observance of Brotherhood Week, February 17 to 24, the Daly City Public Library this week is calling special attention to books that will help people to learn how to get along in the family circle, in the community, on the job, in our national life, and in the world at large. The Daly City Public Library and its Westlake-Broadmoor Branch have many titles on all phases of human relations.

For younger readers, there are books that will help them to understand and appreciate other children; for teen-agers there are books that will tell how to understand and live with their parents, as well as how to get along with persons of their own age group; for men there are books that will help them to get along with their business associates and indicate work that can be done in the community; and for women readers there are books on understanding the adolescent, living with older adults, and cultivating friendships.

Easy To Read

In addition, there are easy-to-read volumes that explain how other people live and worship, what their problems are and how individuals and groups can work together to help solve them.

A few of the titles on human relations that have been added to the library recently include: THE FEARS MEN LIVE BY, by Selma Hirsch; SEGREGATION: THE INNER CONFLICT IN THE SOUTH, by Robert Penn Warren; CROSS-CURRENTS, by Arnold Forster; HOW FAR THE PROMISED LAND? by Walter White; NOW IS THE TIME, by Lillian Smith; and GOODBYE TO UNCLE TOM, by Joseph Furnas.

There are also many older titles available at the Library, some of which have become classics in their field. Among these are Louis Adams' A NATION OF NATIONS, Carey McWilliams' BROTHERS UNDER THE SKIN, and W. L. White's LOST BUNDLES.

Fiction Revealing

Fiction can often be more revealing of different peoples and their ways of life than books based strictly on fact. Among the more recent novels concerned with social problems and different cultures are Richard Haggopian's WINE FOR THE LIVING, which concerns the Armenian settlement in Boston; Sikes Johnson's THE HOPE OF REFUGE, about intolerance in the South; ALL MANNER OF MEN, a collection of short stories from Catholic periodicals, edited by Riley Hughes; HILL OF THE ROOSTER, by Curry Holden, concerning the Indians of Mexico; John Hersey's A SINGLE PEBBLE, set in China; and Wilhelm Moberg's WHEN I WAS A CHILD, an autobiographical novel of the author's own early life in Sweden. Africa, so much in the news, is represented by several outstanding new works of fiction: A DANCE IN THE SUN, by Dan Jacobson; A WREATH FOR UOMO, by Peter Abrahams; MAMBA, by Stuart Cloete; and BLACK RHAPSODY, by Gunar Heider.

These and many similar books are available at the Daly City Public Library, 6351 Mission street, and its Westlake-Broadmoor Branch, 34 Park Plaza drive. Remember, your public library has something for everyone.

Guardsmen Slate Recruit Drive Here

If a group of National Guardsmen call at your home Friday, Saturday or Sunday, February 22, 23, 24, don't be alarmed. They are out on a recruiting drive for young men who are eligible for the draft.

The Guardsmen, members of the 146th Evacuation Hospital with headquarters at Fort Funston on Skyline boulevard, will visit all graduating graduates of the local high school to acquaint them with their military obligations under Public Law No. 51.

One of the two Evacuation units in northern California, the 146th is under the command of Col. Clark R. Miller, M.D., and staged a practice exercise recently at Westlake Shopping Center.

According to Col. Miller, particular emphasis will be put on reaching the parents of young men of Daly City who are faced with military obligations.

"It is our intention," Col. Miller stated, "to show our local parents how these young men can best fulfill their obligations by serving in the National Guard."

"Through enlistment in the 146th Evacuation Hospital, young men can receive their initial military training with the active Army and continue to learn while serving with their friends at home, earn extra money and build up a retirement pension," Col. Miller said.

The drive is part of a statewide campaign to raise the enlistment of the National Guard and coincides with the celebration of Muster Day, a custom of the colonial militia started by George Washington. The Guard is an outgrowth of the colonial militia started by George Washington, it was said.

News From Here & There

By Eleanor Doyle

Last Saturday afternoon, MELISSA MOLINARI on Bismark observed her seventh birthday with a rather festive party shared by: Joey Loco, Susan Dattik, Barbara and Lillian Miller, Steve and Michael Mjehovich, Susan Connolly, Mary Smith, Janet and Nore Molinari (cousins).

On January 24 at St. Mary's, the LOUIS COFFAROS on Whittier became the proud parents of their third daughter and fifth child. The happy household is now centered around Miss "LAURA MARIE," who checked in at eight-eight and a half. She's the little sister of Louis Jr., 10, Cathy, nine, Michael, five, and three-year-old Mary Pat. Mrs. Anna Coffaro in Westlake is the children's grandmother.

Congratulations to JANET CIRIMELE, on San Joaquin, and DANIEL BOYD on Westbrook avenue in Westlake, who became MR. and MRS. on Valentine's Day. Miss Diane Jaun on San Jose avenue was the bride's only attendant, with the groom's brother, Marvin, serving as best man at a simple ceremony at the City Hall in San Francisco.

After their honeymoon in Carmel, the newlyweds will make their home on Mayfair avenue in Westlake.

Last Saturday evening, JANET was the recipient of a miscellaneous show at her home, given by Mrs. Dolores Fozio, of Linda Mar, and Mrs. Carmen Lucia, of Redwood City. About 65 relatives and friends witnessed the event.

Holy Angels is the church selected for the christening soon of VALDIMAR ARTHURO, son of the ROLDOLFO PUENTES on Castle. "ARTIE'S" godparents will be his aunt and uncle, the DAN LUJANS of San Francisco.

Being a shut-in (rheumatic fever), SHERRI PLUMLEY on Lowell featured her tenth birthday last Saturday with a quiet luncheon party. MISS SHERRI's guests were Julia Gilbert, Mary Brady, Mary Alvarado, Judy Dit, Barbara and Maureen Bianchini.

A recent Tupperware hostess was Mrs. Evelyn Komro, another resident of Lowell, with Mrs. Ronnie Nardi as the well-informed demonstrator for the evening. New articles of tupper will soon adorn the shelves at the homes of Nellie Torres, Fay Young, Sophie Brown, Dolores Gillen, June Bianchini, Carmel Berryessa, Libia Goglesong, Laverne Meeks and Joan Pallari.

Becoming a ten-year-old certainly is a good reason for celebrating. That's just what PATRICIA NAVARRA (on Nantico) did last Sunday, along with party guests: Judy Alexander, Kathy Albe, Linda Belatti, Linda Shilver, Jane Nave, Lucille Watson, Judy Reed, and the birthday girl's sister, Janice, and cousin, Robbie Navarra.

Everyone's buzzing about the recent stork-shower given by Beverly Jones, Muriel Keith and Phillis Poncia at the latter's home on Winchester. The guest of honor, Mrs. Georgia Campbell (Crocker-Pershings PTA head), was lured to her neighbor's home a few doors away when she answered a last minute SOS for a baby sitter. Instead, she was "it" for the evening's event. Hear tell that the mother-to-be topped her attire for the evening with a beautiful orchid corsage, a gift from the gals, and opened gifts for baby from: Roberta Schmaley, Bertha Hertell, Lorraine Munday, Violet Perry, Janet Gilmore, Barbara Parodi, Maxine Holmes, Bernice Rowe, Dolores Soomann, Erma Delfino, Margaret Gonella, Marie Scheidt, Elsie Prisco, Josie Runne, Eda Luzzi, Evelyn "Chickie" Robertson and hostesses.

Guests were served refreshments in the dining area, gaily decorated in blue and white with the traditional stork hovering by.

A recent birthday girl, AUDREY BEARDSLEY, on C street, Colma, marked her very special eighth year with an after-school party for guests Kim Nobles, Tonette Phillips, Cecelia Valiano, Debbie Bovero, plus Audrey's sisters, Colleen and Patty, and brother Billy.

Ronald Gene is the name selected for the second addition to the MILTON NELSONS on Parkview. MASTER RONALD made his debut on January 28 at St. Luke's tipping the scales at seven-six. His big brother STANLEY is ten-years-old.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Nelson, Half Moon Bay, and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ellison, of Waldoboro, Maine, are the proud grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. JOHN MOLINI (Stella Rovere), on Briggs street, Colma, recently celebrated their 15th anniversary at a "surprise" dinner party for 25 relatives at the home of her mother, Mrs. Angelo Rovere, also of Briggs street. Hostess was Mrs. Mary Coffey.

During the evening, many other friends dropped in to offer congratulations, with gifts for the traditional years of marriage (cut Crystal).

The DONALD IODENCES on Acton have added another member and heir to their family tree, with the statistics reading—February first ... place—U. C. Moffitt hospital ... weight—nine-four ... answers to the name of ROY EUGENE ... brother of JANICE, eight and a half, DONALD, seven, JACKIE, six, DAVID, four, and two-year-old DEAN ... The children's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hansen of Great Falls, Montana, and Mrs. Clara Jones of San Francisco.

Some belated but happy birthday wishes to ... Mrs. EDITH RACE on Castle ... KAREN FALK on Gambetta ... SHARON RASMUSEN on Wyandotte ... MICHAEL GUISTI on W. Moltke ... Abbot's Mrs. DOROTHY RAIFF ... BILLY VAN AKEN and MASTER STEVE HENSENE ... MRS. ANN INGERSOLL on Crocker ... ERNIE MOLINARI on Bismark ... B. STEVE'S EVAN HARPER and STEVE CHRISTIANO ... and RUDY PUENTE on Castle ...

The new BROWNIES in TROOP 70 (Parkview) observed their investiture ceremony in the multi-use-room of Jefferson Elementary school, followed by a box supper with their moms, last Saturday evening. The new additions to Scouting are: Linda Alcalde, Catherine Bess, Shirley Bowles, Robene Brown, Linda Callen, Jeanie Capurro, Yvonne Caravantes, Susan Dewey, Geraldine Garelli, Judith Hnilo, Sharon Ann Kraus, Margaret Organ and Theresa Ruta.

Leader of this new troop is Mrs. EMILIA A. KRAUS, of Station, with Mrs. Earling M. Brown, on Florence, as her co-worker.

Miss "KATHY" ORTIZ on Garwood, a new five-year-old, observed her big day with a super party enjoyed by: Debbie Diccio, Debbie and Deanna Benando, Margie, Danny, Jimmie, Sharon, and Patty Michael, Mike and Pat Rice. Also included were the party girl's brother, Ricky, and sister, Julie.

Kathy's grown-up guests were: Shirley Benando, Jackie Diccio, Caroline Michael and Kay Rice.

Notes from here and there ... A belated anniversary wish to ED & ERLY BURGER on A hot for their sixteenth one ... The Roy Gilmores, Bob Keiths, Gordon Perrys, John Soomanns, Bud Pensels, and the Allen Reeves recently spent an evening visiting with the FRANK PRISCOS in Crestmoor Park — helping FRANK to celebrate that added year ... The HUGO SCHMOLCHS from Ketchikan, Alaska, are here enjoying their yearly visit with her mother, Mrs. Margaret McDonald on Wilts, and seeing the town with the George McDonalds (her brother) on Thiers ... Two sets of tonsils are not being missed one bit these days by TOMMY, nine, and five-year-old SANDY SWARTSFAGER on B street in Colma, after a recent coming-out event at Mary's Help.

Village Notes

By Gwin Mitchell

PL 5-0679

Well, Broadmoor had itself a parade, and what a parade! From all sides we heard nothing but expressions of delight and approval, and a large vote of thanks should go to Warren Vocke and all the others who worked so hard. Include the busy people who served refreshments at Garden Village School afterwards in that list; word has it that they were recruited from Pack 84 and the BPOA.

We had the opportunity of working with Bernie Rausch, KPIX news cameraman, who covered the event. Bernie came to America from Germany five years ago with his family, and has had quite a few interesting experiences in TV and free-lance photography work. He was bombed out of Cologne five times during the war, and then went to Munich before coming over. He took pictures of practically everyone in the parade.

We also had the pleasure of enjoying the proverbial cup of coffee and an after-parade snack with Chief Eaglewing and Red Turtle at our house, and our dining room table was the locale for one of the most interesting conversations ever held around it. Altogether a golden day, from start to finish.

There was quite a gathering at the Vocke house that evening, too, with Tony and Mary Conteras, Ross and Marion Hilton, Ken and Betty Arutz, and Joe and Helen Mahoney all enjoying the comfort of sitting and talking about the hours they spent walking all afternoon! We think we got all the names of those there; if we missed any, sorry—we tried to get everyone in.

This and That
A word of thanks to John Davy of Edgeworth, who spent his time taking pictures of the parade and then rushed off to get them developed in time for this paper's deadline. Where-have-we-been department: we just now learned that Ann and Paul Garret left Village Lane for Hawaii at Christmas time. Ann was glad to be home again, as she is an islander. All their good friends in the neighborhood will miss them, as will we all. Yum! . . . And wasn't George Carleton busy on Maddux the other day, snarling his police siren at eager beavers in a hurry! A good thing, too. . . . Speaking of cars, how come so many were parked on streets along the parade line of march Sunday, after police requests that the roads be kept clear? Tch, tch. . . . Have you noticed the cute wishing well on the Fiorello front lawn on Wildwood? You should; it's quite attractive. . . . While on Wildwood, we pause to say goodbye to Don and Ruth Childers, who have departed our town for Oakland. Miss you, Mr. and Mrs. C. and family. . . . Measles have appeared in the Bullen home on Village lane (and in about five other homes there too, probably), but that didn't prevent Barbara B. from turning six last week, although there couldn't be a party. Happy birthday, Miss B. . . . Another departure—Mary Burgers and her family are now of L.A., so the James L. Snell PTA is missing its good publicity chairman and people in the Alpine area are missing good neighbors.

Stork Club

Two Village families welcomed new babies this week. Both babies were number four in the family, and both gave each family two boys and two girls, a very good arrangement! Maura Phyllis Chernok is now at home on Bradley, with parents Thelma and George, brothers Paul and Mitchell, and sister Randee. On Sweetwood, James Michael Polen is providing brotherly company for Gordon, Susan and Gail Marie, and a new source of pride for parents Gordon and June.

Other birthdays were on the list, too. Gail Hixson of Louvaine had a seventh celebration to end all celebrations. She had a cupcake party for her first grade at school on her birthday, and a party at home on the nearest Saturday afternoon. She ordered her own cake—in the shape of a 7—from the bakery, complete with ballerina on top. Guests who enjoyed the cake in the blue-and-white-streamer dining room were: Diane Dumont, Scott Bjorkquist, Beth Lichtenberg, Dennis Buell, Donna Mize, Danny Dennis, and Leslie Herleikson. That same Saturday, Gail went out to dinner with her family at Ricker's, and the organist played Happy Birthday, and everyone sang to her. Quite a seventh birthday for a happy little girl!

Boys have birthdays, too, of course, and no exception was Michael McCarthy of Sweetwood, who turned 10 with an uproarious kind of afternoon such as only boys of that age can provide! Guests having the times of their lives were: Bob Murphy, Martin Rist, Bobby Maloney, Timmy Gerner, Chris Edwards, Mike and Denny Earnshaw, and Greg McCarthy.

Ski Time

A group of young people from Westmoor High went skiing at Dodge Ridge a weekend or so ago. They departed the Villages around 2:30 in the morning on a Saturday, and returned at 10 or so that night, after having had a wonderful—and strenuous—day. They skied—or learned to ski—and tobogganed (after hitching a ride the several miles to the tobogganing place). It snowed the whole day, too, just for an extra touch. Sandy Smith, Kathi Macklin, Linda Masterson, Susan Damon and Arlene Hansen were some of the Village lassies who went.

About 30 or 40 highschoolers gathered at Sandy Smith's 87th street home that same Saturday for a surprise farewell party for Bev Sharp, who was moving from Westlake to the Presidio. It was a late party, with breakfast at 1 a.m. for those who were going on the skiing trip—and for those who weren't, too.

Down San Bruno way, ex-Villagers Gloria and Frank Dalzelle were given a house-warming by friends Audrey Wright, Gwen Podesta and Bev Terrill, with about 55 people there at one time or another. Barney and Peggy Burritt of Washington were there as two of the 55. We hear it was quite a nice party.

All Foothill is glad to see George Chichester home after sudden hospitalization for serious surgery. He is recuperating, but it will be a while before he will be out and around. Nice friends and neighbors went together and bought two LP records as a welcome home present, which delighted both George and Doris, as they love good music. Not a little of that delight came from their love of good neighbors as well.

Special Dinner
Carolyn Miller, Sue Usted and Donna Bales were surprised with a dinner given for them by the rest of their colleagues on the teaching staff of Benjamin Franklin School, at the Copperwood Lodge. All three were leaving the school—Sue because of a business transfer for her husband, and Donna and Carolyn because of future stork dates. In fact, the pupils in Carolyn's room even gave her a baby shower, which they planned all by themselves. From all reports it was lovely, and everybody was a little misty around the eyes afterwards.

Along the party line, Darlene Johnson of Maddux had a 19th birthday recently, and was very much the guest of honor at a family dinner. And down on Stewart, Johnny Skillman turned eight and gave a luncheon party, with a trip to the show afterwards. Guests included Richard Orloff, Mark and Richard Baird, Steve Parker, Mario and Mike Rizzo, Ricky Centanni, Jimmy

'SWELL TIME,' FULL CROWD EXPECTED AT 'SWEETHEART' DANCE

The OLPH Men's club dance committee, Al Estrada, Nate Pearlman and Bill Konevich anticipated a "capacity crowd and a swell time" at the annual "Sweetheart Dance" being presented in the OLPH school auditorium, 80 Wellington Avenue, this Saturday. Tickets will be available at the door.

Dancing will be from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. with music by Angelo Ferrigno's orchestra. There will be dance prizes, door prizes, refreshments, and flowers for the ladies. Admission will be $1 per person. The public is invited.

Seattle, Washington, was founded in 1852 by a group of white settlers and named for a friendly Indian chief.

Northrup and John Sirianni.

Watch for Garden Lane's Mayo Bryce on KQED next Tuesday, February 19, when he presents a creative arts program on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons throughout the next semester. Music, art, drama and dance will be discussed, with guest instructors participating. Here's a boon for housewives who can't find the time to go back to school to widen their horizons. As far as we know at this time, the program will be on at nap time, too, which is another piece of luck. Take advantage of it, gals! PS: the course is not for extension enrollment.

Oh yes: we almost forgot to say thank you to the Ray Jacobs family for the use of their roof from which to take pictures of the parade as it came down 87th street, and to Tom Gonzales for the use of his ladder on which we climbed said roof.

MODERN SANCTUARY on Elmwood drive will be dedicated Sunday morning by Westlake's Catholic community. An estimated 4000 persons are expected to attend the formal ceremonies marking completion of Our Lady of Mercy church and school. Picture at top shows parochial school housing 300 students. A

Westlake Catholic Women's Fashion Fete Draws 1000

A true spring day greeted approximately 1,000 women wearing their new spring bonnets as they met at the Fairmont Hotel to attend the recent Westlake Catholic Women's luncheon and fashion show.

The tables were very inviting, with centerpieces of blooming hyacinths in all their lovely shades of blue, pink, deep purple and white. The pots were decorated in colored foil and contrasting ribbon.

The luncheon menu consisted of green goddess salad, fillet of turkey, risotto, green peas and carrots, cranberry sauce, coffee meringue and coffee.

Following the luncheon came the highlight of the afternoon, as 17 lovely models exhibited the latest spring creations from Liebes, ranging from gardening outfits to formals. Mrs. Thomas Daly did the commentary to background music of Jack Ross and his orchestra.

Bouquets are extended to Mrs. Daly and her committee for making this such an enjoyable and successful affair. The proceeds will benefit Our Lady of Mercy Parish in Westlake.

SHOPPING BLOCK

By JANE KEITH

When the MARKET BASKET truck broke down just in time for last Thursday's week-end, owner Tony Burkhard was, we quote his wife Catherine, "Madder than a wet hen."

PORTER'S DEPARTMENT STORE at 6340 Mission will be clearing reg. 89c a yard Stamps and some fine percales at 3 yards for just $1.00! Thrifty Shopper Stamps here and quality merchandise that's sometimes hard to display because of cramped quarters. . . .

RELISH BAKERY will be selling their delicious, heart-shaped Valentine cakes again this year—and whether you like them with fluffy frosting or rich with whipped cream—RELISH BAKERY makes them to melt in your mouth!

BIG BEAR LUMBER CO., presently located next door to FLORAL ARTS NURSERY, will be moving to new headquarters at 3101 Junipero Serra Blvd. by March 1st. . . . Showrooms in the new building are really deluxe—and store and mill rooms, all under cover, are tremendous. Add to this a whopping big off street parking lot and you have one of the finest enterprises in Daly City both for quality and convenience!

Make the Drapery section of MERIT FURNITURE top your shopping list this week if you need new curtains—or want to sew for Spring. Decorator Albert Rudolph wants to reduce his inventory before tax time and has slashed prices to 79c a yard and $1.95 a yard on fabrics regularly priced (and you can check them) to as high as $7.98 a yard. Sale starts this Wednesday and store hours are 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. daily—Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights to 9 p.m. This is one of the best buys we've seen in our six years of writing the column.

Private luncheon groups of 25 to 50 will get reasonably priced and red-carpet treatment at COPPERWOOD LODGE, located at 1197 Hillside Blvd. . . . Copperwood Lodge recently discontinued regular luncheons and is available until 5 p.m. when the dinner hour starts there. For further particulars, call Mrs. Roseman at Plaza 6-0900.

SPOTLIGHT MARKET Meat Department does a remarkable job of trimming and packaging its U.S.D.A. Choice meats and manages to make even such items as beef heart and tripe attractive. Tripe, they cut in easy to cook strips; and the heart, carefully de-fatted, is cut in steak-like strips.

KAUFMAN STUDIO, located at 181 Southgate in Westlake, offers a very Special get acquainted offer of one 8x10 Portrait for $5.95 instead of the regular price of $9.50. Proofs will be shown and price includes mounting plus the convenience and assurance of excellent work that goes with going to KAUFMAN STUDIO.

ART COLVIN REALTY offices at 1999 Junipero Serra Blvd. were crazy mixed up last week in every department except that of Real Estate: Soundproofing men were gaily throwing acoustic tiles to each other as they quieted the ceiling—carpenters were hammering office partitions in the newly acquired office next door and the P. G. & E. drilled outside. . . . Otherwise, it was business—and more business as usual at ART COLVIN REALTY.

Happy Birthday—just one week late—to MODE O'DAY manager Leena Lombardi.

MOSHER'S SHOE STORE in Westlake will be clearing regular stock shoes valued to $8.95—for just $1.99. This is a tremendous buy for you women and girls, because styles are fashion right flats and wedgies. . . .

TANFORAN FLOWERS' Gene Saunders delivered an order to Sharon P. K. recently and when he finally found the right address, was met by a large dog with a businesslike BARK. "Does he bite?" asked Gene. The owner looked Gene over carefully and replied, "He's very particular 'bout whom he bites." . . . Considering that no answer at all—Gene handed the flowers over the fence and left without any further particulars. . . .

FARMER'S INSURANCE GROUP rates have not been raised—and to learn full particulars, we recommend a call to Myron Sebring, district manager, at Plaza 6-2911 or a visit to his office at 6178 Mission St. A safe driving record has always paid off with the Farmer's Insurance Group low rate—and looks like the year 1957 is no exception. . . .

SNO-MAN foods "to go" include owner Mrs. Booth's homemade Chili, potato salad, minestrone soup, french fries and delicious hamburgers from regulation to Poppaburger size. . . . Simply call Plaza 5-5417 and place your order. . . . Food will be piping hot and ready to pick up whenever you're ready!

RAY-AL'S, at 6201 Mission, says "Be my Valentine" masculine fashion with the latest of fashions for men displayed with several hundred dollars worth of Archery equipment—owned and loaned for the occasion by Dick Whiteside. . . .

Electric Saw Stolen From Westlake Shed

A thief took a $140 electric hand saw from a tool shed at the site of the new Westlake Motor Vehicle Office shortly past noon Tuesday.

Reporting the loss was Irwin Smith, construction foreman for the project.

Tribe Keeps 'Slim' Title Hopes Alive, Rips Scots, 53-42

Jefferson's varsity cagers rekindled their "longshot" title hopes Tuesday by knocking Carlmont out of the North PAL race via a 53-42 lacing in the Scot gym.

The victory, sparked by fireball Larry Pottinger, gave the Tribe (7-3) a mathematical chance to tie front-running Burlingame (9-1). But the prospect appears dim since the Panthers close out the campaign against two second raters, Hillsdale and San Mateo.

Tough Road

Coach Mike Orlich's lads, meanwhile, must get by in-and-out Capuchino here this Friday night and spoiler South City next Thursday. Both quintets are capable of ruining Jeff's designs on a title tie and possible playoff. South

SOLID choice for All-League honors is Jeff's workhorse forward Wayne Lewis. He added 13 points to his bulky total Tuesday although the Indian 30's lost to Carlmont, 52-44. Wayne, second in North PAL scoring, has been a standout all season.

City's overtime win over the locals last month touched off a three-game losing streak for Orlich's squad, after they lead the loop with a 5-0 record.

Pottinger, everybody's choice for "Player Of The Year," was tremendous against Carlmont. He bucketed 17 points, even though "covered" by three men, and was a defensive demon on the backboards.

Tribe Rallies

The Indians took control early in the third quarter and led to the finish. During the first half, it was give and take, with the intermission tally reading 20-all. But Pottinger and Bob Comstock rallied their mates thereafter to pile up a comfortable lead. The Scots couldn't get closer than four points in the second half. They trailed at the end of the third quarter, 35-27. Eight of Pottinger's points came in the final period.

Craig Barrett was top scorer for the Scots with 12.

Steve Mezzera's 30's lost to the Carlmont lightweights, 52-44, mainly because Scot Sid Kauffman exploded for 24 points. Wayne Lewis, who like Pottinger is second in league scoring, was high for the Indians with 13. Guard Mecchi accounted for 10.

Thirties Stung

The setback left Mezzera's kids with a 4-6 record, and a dismal outlook with title-bound Capuchino next, followed by a good South City squad.

Given a league bye last Friday, Jeff's varsity stayed in shape by beating San Francisco State's jayvees.

The Capuchino and South City doubleheaders at Jeff gym this Friday night and next Thursday start with lightweight action at 7:30 o'clock.

M&O Keglers Fatten Lead, Split Decision Pedromen

Playing with the pressure on, McGahey & Olson's bowlers split decided San Pedro Lunch Tuesday to pad their league lead to 2½ games.

Towne House moved into second spot by measuring Daly City Cleaners, 2-1, while Brisbane Market, another pretender to the throne, gained a tie for third with a 2-1 win over Carmona Chemical.

Gene Marsh paced Plaza Furniture's whitewash of Thur Meats. His 605 series was tops for the evening. B. Rocchetta of Paul's Flowers rolled high singles with a 214.

In other results, split verdicts were registered by Westlake Homes over Edisco, Luce Meats over Bank of America, Vince & Fred's over Paul's Flowers, and Carlos Pizzeria over Donnellan Realty.

Next Tuesday's key matches at Brentwood Bowl pit M & O against Plaza Furniture, Towne House and Edisco, San Pedro and Bank of America, and Brisbane against Westlake.

Teacher 'Turnover' Slightly Higher Here, Study Shows

Partial returns on a study of teacher "turnover" in the Jefferson Elementary School district show the local district's teacher "mortality" rate slightly higher than comparable school districts.

Results of queries made to four districts were presented at Monday night's meeting of the new schools betterment group. Acting president Thomas Noonan said there were still eight other districts to be surveyed and that Monday's results were "inconclusive." He did say, however, that "The rate of departure of teachers in the local district is slightly higher than in other districts."

The teacher turnover problem is the first major project undertaken by the newly-formed citizens schools committee.

The group, which originally planned to select and actively back candidates for the school district board of trustees, will not make any recommendations for the forthcoming election because of the late date, Noonan said.

The new organization will meet again Monday night at Westlake school to adopt a "framework" for governing itself and to elect permanent officers.

Fourteen persons attended Monday night's meeting.

A 27-year-old San Francisco salesman was arrested by Daly City police Wednesday on a charge of stealing six 1957 license tags from the Motor Vehicle Office on Mission street two weeks ago.

Booked was Eugene Schultenover, 1758 Clay street who allegedly took the tags while a clerk was attempting to verify his check.

Schultenover surrendered himself at the police station. Pending the peace, assault, battery, and resisting arrest.

Podesta Nursery 9 Wins On No-Hitter By Cornell Holmes

Young Cornell Holmes tossed a sparkling no-hitter Sunday as the Podesta Nursery nine routed Mill Valley in a tilt across the bay, 14-0.

Showing near-perfect control, Holmes fanned eight and walked only two in the superb effort.

His mates pounded three enemy pitchers for 13 hits as they rallied to their second win of the year. Dennis Downey led the assault with four for five. John Souza collected three hits, while Dixie Howell and Gary Podesta got two apiece.

DC POLICE ARREST EX-SEALS' PLAYER AS DRUNK-IN-AUTO

Former Seals' ballplayer Del Young struck out Thursday night as he was charged with being drunk in and about an auto on the Coast highway.

Daly City police spotted Young's car parked precariously off the road, not far from a cliff. Upon investigation, they found the ex-ballplayer in a slightly disheveled condition, according to their report.

Young, who operates a San Francisco bar, admitted having a few drinks earlier in Sharp Park, officers said. He posted $50 bail and is due in court this Thursday.

RAM FACULTY CAGERS TRIP VARSITY, 35-32, IN FIRST ANNUAL GO

Westmoor High's faculty cagers huffed and they puffed to eke out a 35-32 victory over the Ram varsity Friday in a lively battle at Jeff gym.

Pacing the pros in the abbreviated affair was Byron Van Alstyne, 30's coach, who formerly roamed the courts for USC. He was game high man with 16 points. Tony Giammona tossed in 8 points for the "old" gents.

Gary Twitty and Rich Lewetzou led the losers with 14 and 7, respectively.

The varsity was ahead at half-time, 16-11, but gave way to superior court savvy in the closing stanzas.

Most interested spectator was Principal Glenn South, who refused to reveal which team he was backing.

Ram 20's star Ross Holmgren coached the winners. Officials were 30's guard Paul Gioni and Dave Haberman, Ram publicity man and team manager.

WESTMOOR QUINTET COPS TWO STRAIGHT, ENDS SLATE FRIDAY

Pepped by two straight wins, Westmoor's vastly improved varsity cagers conclude their first season this Friday night when they battle unbeaten Cubberley in Palo Alto.

The Rams, now 5-8, clouted Burlingame's reserves last week, 53-30, then socked Half Moon Bay on Tuesday, 40-30.

Gary Twitty and Rich Lewetzou led the Bilgum triumph, potting 15 and 14 points, in that order. Lewetzou, top W'moor scorer, fouled out midway through the second quarter.

Against Half Moon Bay, it was center Larry Schoenfeldt who bombarded the hoop. He finished with 18 points and played his best all-around game of the year.

The Ram 30's lost to the Panthers, 39-20, and to the Coastside quint, 35-17. The setbacks gave the locals a 2-11 record.
